Dr. Nick Schroeder is the Interim Program Director of Jazz at Friends University. In addition to his activities as a college professor, he has also been very active as a commercial musician with numerous appearances as a guest artist and clinician at Kansas Wesleyan University, Wichita State University, Washburn University, Southwest Oklahoma State University, Friends University, and various high schools across the Midwest. Nick also maintains a busy trumpet career freelancing with professional groups in Central Kansas and is the principal trumpet of the Hutchinson Symphony. Some of the acts that Dr. Schroeder has appeared with are The World Famous Glenn Miller Orchestra, The Temptations, The Four Tops, Frankie Avalon, Fred Wesley, Spoon, The Rat Pack, The Guy Lombardo Orchestra, The Les Elgart Orchestra, The Champaign/Urbana Symphony Orchestra, The Salina Symphony, The Box Tops, The Buckingham, Marvin Hamlisch, Monica Mancini, Pauli Carman, and aboard Carnival Cruise Lines. Dr. Schroeder can be found most weekends playing trumpet for Newspring Church or with the salsa group Tumbao in Wichita. Nick is an avid cyclist, chef, gardener, husband, and father of two beautiful girls, Lucy and Lily.
